

CONFLICT PREVENTION & CIVIL SOCIETY: LESSONS FROM IRELAND

Monday 18 July 2005
3pm to 6pm

Conference Room 8, United Nations University, UN Plaza, New York

---

Programme

---

~ Chair: Prof. Gillian Robinson, INCORE, University of Ulster ~

3:00pm Welcome

Prof. Gillian Robinson, INCORE, University of Ulster

Dr Billy Leonard, NICEC, University of Ulster

3:15pm Presentations

Steve Williams, INCORE Associate

'How civil society prevented the conflict from boiling over'

Lisa McElherron, Public Affairs Manager, N.Ireland Council for Voluntary Action

'Going where governments and political parties can't go'

Duncan Morrow, Chief Executive, Community Relations Council, N.Ireland

'What civil society can do to prevent re-occurrence'

4:30pm Questions and Answers

5:15pm Concluding Remarks

Dr Billy Leonard, NICEC, University of Ulster

Light refreshments

6:00pm Close

---

All main speakers have considerable experience of civil society's contribution in the Ireland / Northern Ireland context

To attend the seminar please complete the form below

for the Prevention of Armed Conflict Conference at the United Nations

-
- I will attend the ‘Conflict Prevention & Civil Society: Lessons From Ireland’ seminar on Monday 18 July 2005

Please include your contact details in the section below.

Fax the information to NICEC at +44 (0) 28 7137 5560 or email your details together to g.sweeney@ulster.ac.uk

~Please confirm your attendance by Thursday 30th June 2005~

Name	Job Title/Position
Organization
Telephone	Fax
Email

Fax to +44 (0) 2871 375560 or Email to g.sweeney@ulster.ac.uk

---